

Sinclair Broadcasting's airing an anti-Kerry documentary immediately before the election is an abuse of the public airways. It shows how corporations agenda is not the peoples adgenda and when given the opportunity they will alway work exclusively for the interests of the buisiness community. We need more accountablility and more local news and most importantly we need to hold broadcasters accountable for serving the public whose airways they use (or presently abuse).

Thank you,

Steve werndorf